3. That such reformed devotees will be reassigned a preaching field by the GBC officers committee for a one year probation.
4. That the "considerations for chasing an acarya" be a standing order of ISKCON as follows:

I Necessity

1. if any acaryas feels that his preaching area is too large to see the devotees on a regular basis, this would constitute a necessity for adding an initiating guru.
2. if any acarya feels that he doesn't want to initiate any more disciples, this could create a need.
3. when significant member of advanced Vaisnavas recognize outstanding qualities of particular devotee to become an initiating guru this could create a need.

II Qualification

1. He is learned in Sastras. Srila Prabhupada says in the first canto of Srimad Bhagavatam that the acarya does not deliver lectures capriciously or does not try to screw some obscure meaning out of the scriptures. His sastric knowledge should be firmly based in siddhanta or conclusion, and he should be effective in his practical preaching.
2. He should show understanding of, and dedication to Srila Prabhupada's mission, maintaining and establishing book distribution and other projects.
3. He recognizes the GBC as the ultimate managing authority in ISKCON.
4. He has excelled in preaching activities.
5. He should also be free from Kamini, attachment to sense gratification, pratistha, false prestige and personal ambitions, and Kancan, the accumulative spirit.
6. He should be free from nisiddha – acar, behavior against Vaisnava principles, he should also be free of kutinati, diplomatic or duplicitous behaviour. He should also be free from puja or the desire for personal worship; and he should be free from labha, mundane profiteering.

III Vows

1. He must agree that his personal mission is the same as the mission of Srila Prabhupada, to flood the world with transcendental literatures like Bhagavad Gita and Srimad Bhagavatam and to "do as he was doing" in establishing ISKCON all over the world.
2. He must agree that Srila Prabhupada is represented by ISKCON and that ISKCON is governed by the GBC. Even Srila Prabhupada said he was a member of ISKCON; so when Srila Prabhupada gives one permission to be a guru, it is to be a guru for and within ISKCON, not outside.
3. He must agree that external behaviour is indeed a sign of internal realization, and must harmonize with ISKCON policies in general, and never act in a way which might unnecessarily jeopardize our worldwide mission. He should understand that taking disciples restricts external behaviour.
4. He must agree to carefully study and review aspiring disciples, so as not to make a mockery of the initiation process, and he must give his disciples directions and examples which corroborate with that of Srila Prabhupada and teach this disciples that they are part of ISKCON.

5. That as ISKCON is non different from His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada no one has the right to lead anyone away from ISKCON.

6. That when there are significant difficulties with a GBC member one should state his problem in writing and forward to the GBC officers committee for necessary consideration.
